I, George Raymond Hollinshead, Team Leader Specialist Premium Services at Allianz Australia Workers' Compensation (NSW) Limited, acknowledge that Peter Woods and Woods & Day Solicitors have provided legal debt recovery services to my Team at Allianz on behalf of the Workers Compensation Nominal Insurer since 2003.

During that time, Woods & Day Solicitors has consistently demonstrated the capacity to process high volumes of legal documents in accordance with our strict time requirements, including, but not limited to:

- Letters of Demand;
- Statements of Liquidated Claim;
- Notices of Motion for Default Judgment;
- Writs for the Levy of Property, Garnishee Orders and Examination Orders;
- Creditor's Statutory Demands.

Woods & Day Solicitors has also acted for and provided critical legal advice to Allianz in relation to contested legal proceedings on numerous occasions, including applications to set aside Creditor's Statutory Demands and opposed winding up applications in the Supreme Court of NSW and defended matters and applications to set aside Default Judgment in the Local Court of NSW.

We have always found Peter and his staff to be extremely competent and courteous in the exercise of their services and they have always addressed any legal queries my staff have had in respect of the debt recover process in a prompt and capable manner.

I can without hesitation, unequivocally recommend Woods & Day Solicitors to any prospective clients in handling their debt recovery work and all other commercial legal services.
