To whom it may concern

I am the Manager, Claims Operations, of Australia Workers' Compensation (NSW) Limited.

Since 2003, Woods & Day Solicitors has been one of a panel of solicitors that Allianz uses for the recovery of outstanding workers compensation premiums and related legal services on behalf of the Workers Compensation Nominal Insurer. Those legal services have included producing significant volumes of Letters of Demand and Statements of Liquidated Claim. Work entailed also consists of entering Judgment on our behalf and preparing Writs for execution. Woods & Day Solicitors issue high numbers of Creditor's Statutory Demand and act in winding up and bankruptcy proceedings.

During their time acting for us, Peter Woods and his staff have provided their services in an efficient and highly professional manner with a willingness to ensure that all requests asked of them are completed within our stringent timeframes and of the highest quality.

They have consistently provided reliable and timely advice and recommendations on all aspects of the debt recovery process, including disputed legal proceedings in the Supreme Court of the NSW and the Local Court of NSW.

I have no hesitation in recommending Peter Woods and Woods & Day Solicitors to any prospective clients for both their debt recovery and other legal requirements.
If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me on (02) 8258 5971.

Yours sincerely

Kylie MacKenzie
